If you received an invitation to join an Event, you can skip the registration and join the Event as a guest by entering the Event ID. You will be assigned a temporary username for the duration of the event. As a guest, you will have access to the Joint Planner, Agenda, and Calendar features for the particular Event you were invited to. You will not be able to host any Events or join multiple events at once, and you won't have a history of past events.
